The court has this date executed the attached order permitting H. Clayton Walker, Jr., Robert L. Reibold, and Walker & Reibold, LLC to withdraw as attorneys of record for defendants, Palmetto HomeStyle, LLC, Don Spires, and Cheri W. Spires, (hereafter “the clients”). The court will allow the clients thirty (30) days from the entry date of this order within which to mail the court notice of the identity of replacement counsel or, alternatively, of the client’s desire to proceed with this litigation without an attorney (“pro se”).¹ To this end, the client shall, within thirty (30) days from entry of this order, complete the attached Notice and mail it to the Clerk of Court at the address indicated. If the client fails to mail the attached letter to the clerk within the time prescribed, the court will assume that the client intends to proceed in this litigation without the benefit of attorney.² If the client chooses to proceed pro se, it remains responsible for insuring that the Clerk of Court has a current accurate address.

² A corporation cannot appear without an attorney duly licensed to practice in this district.
